

BEAGLE

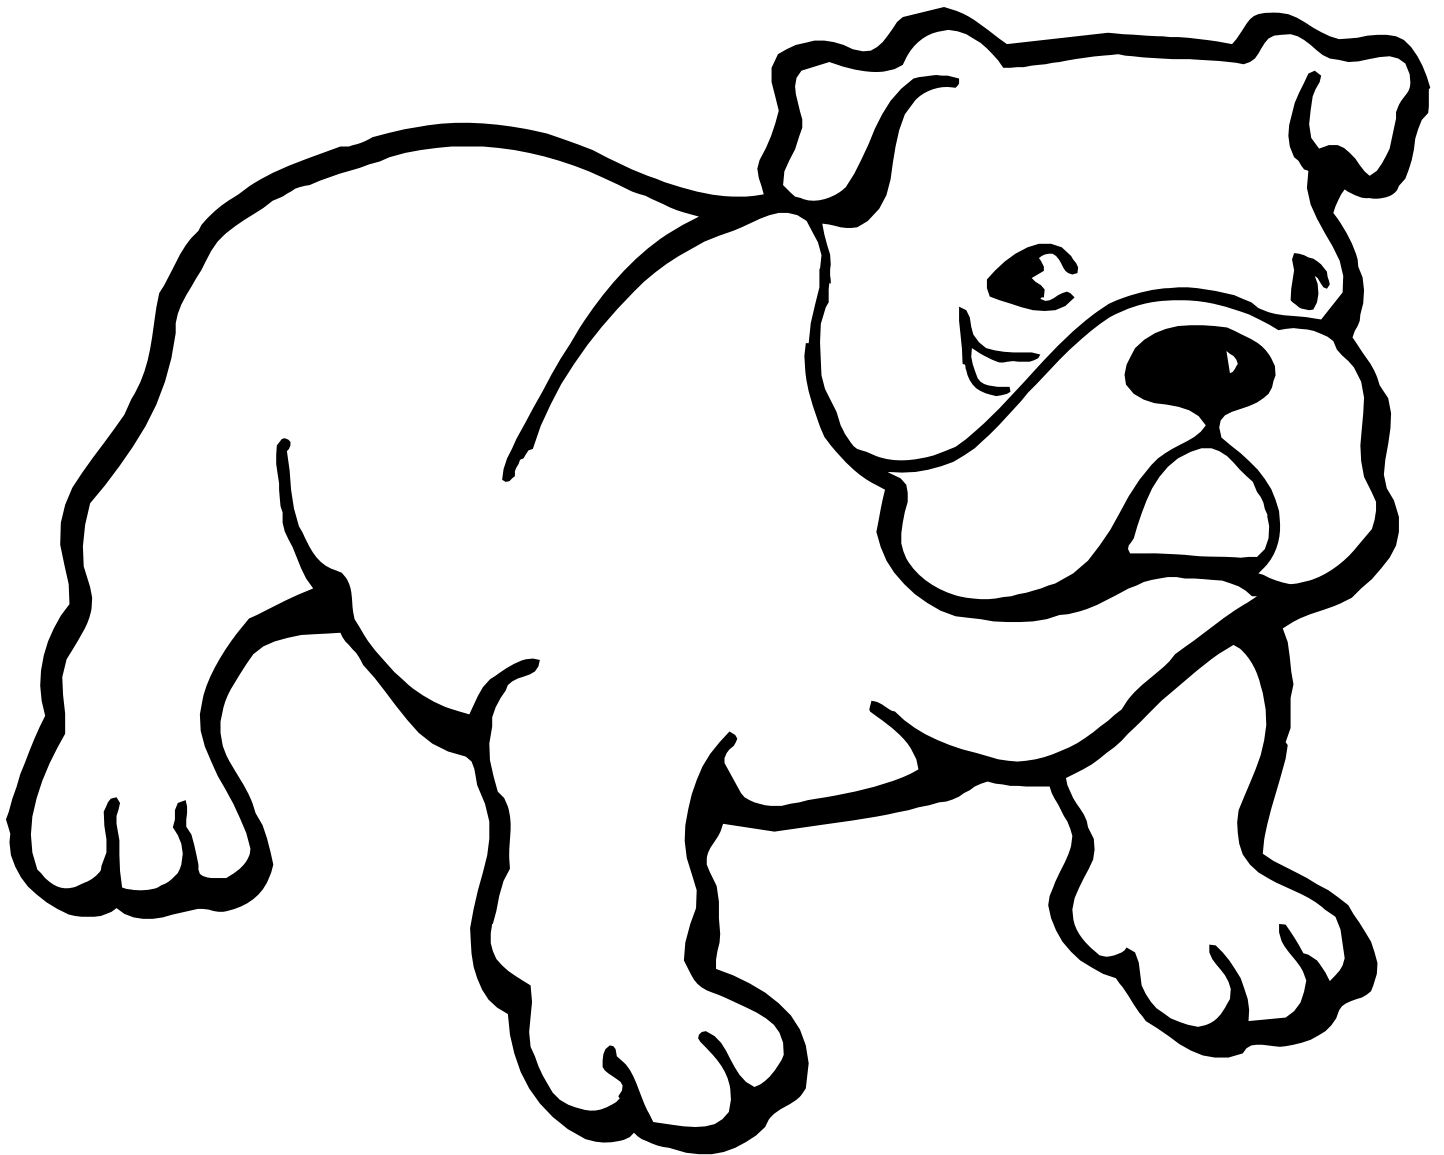

BEAGLE	smooth coat of white hair with large black and tan patches	13" - 15" high and 18 - 30 pounds	Has long drooping ears and is a hunting dog.
---------------	--	-----------------------------------	--

COLLIE

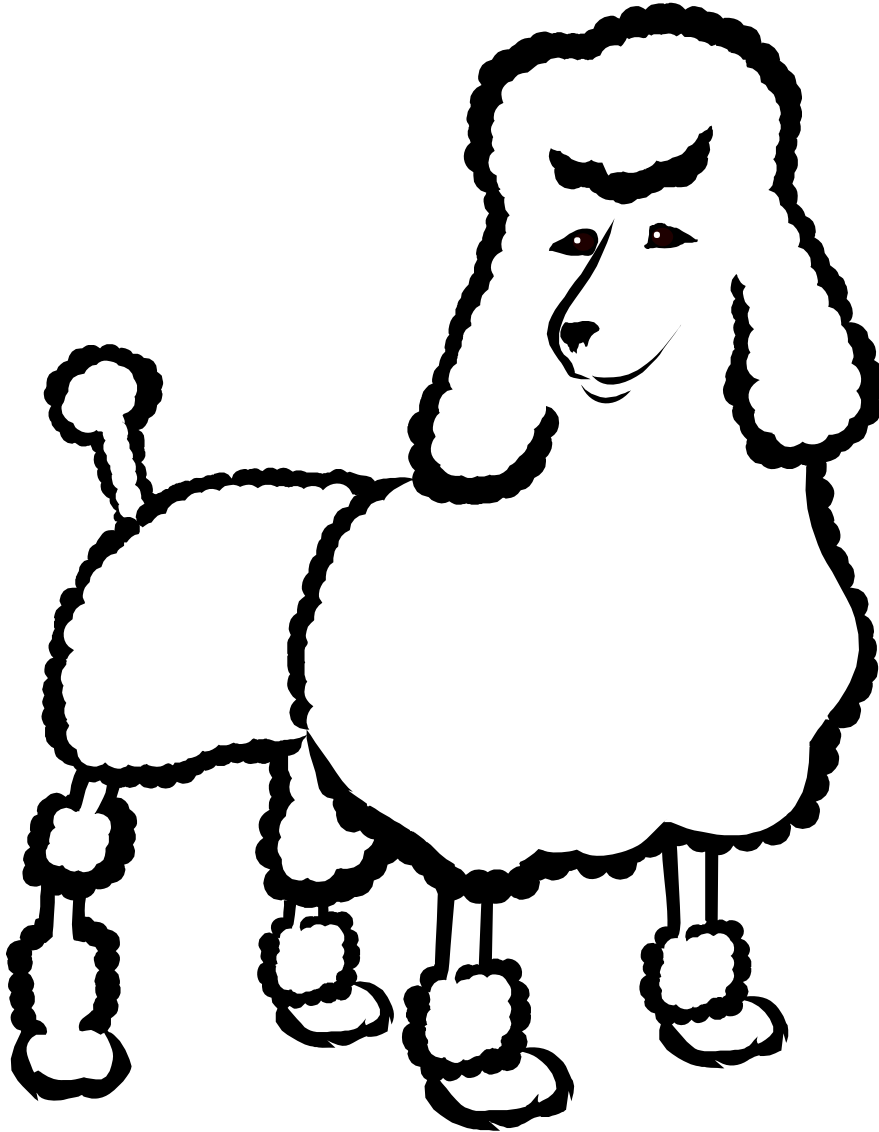

COLLIE	long hair of brown & white, black, white & tan, gray or all white	22" high and 50 - 75 pounds	First bred to care for sheep and helps in farm work.
--------	---	-----------------------------	--

BULLDOG

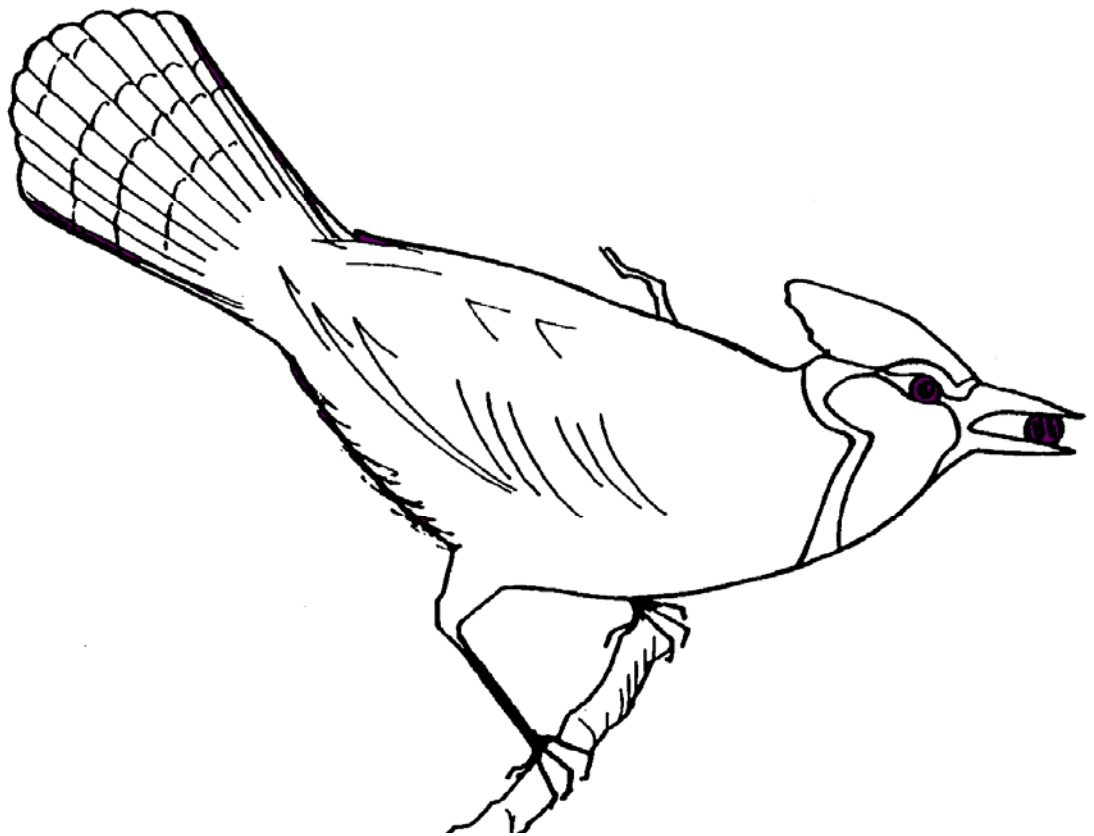

BULLDOG	smooth, fine, short-haired coat and red, brindle; white; pale yellow or fawn in color.	12" – 16" high and about 50 pounds	This breed is perfect for apartment living.
---------	--	------------------------------------	---

POODLE

POODLE	white, black, gray, blue, brown, or apricot	Toy: under 10" Miniature: over 10", under 15" Standard: over 15" and 7 - 55 pounds	Once used as a hunter and has frizzy hair with a top knot.
--------	---	---	--

BLUE JAY

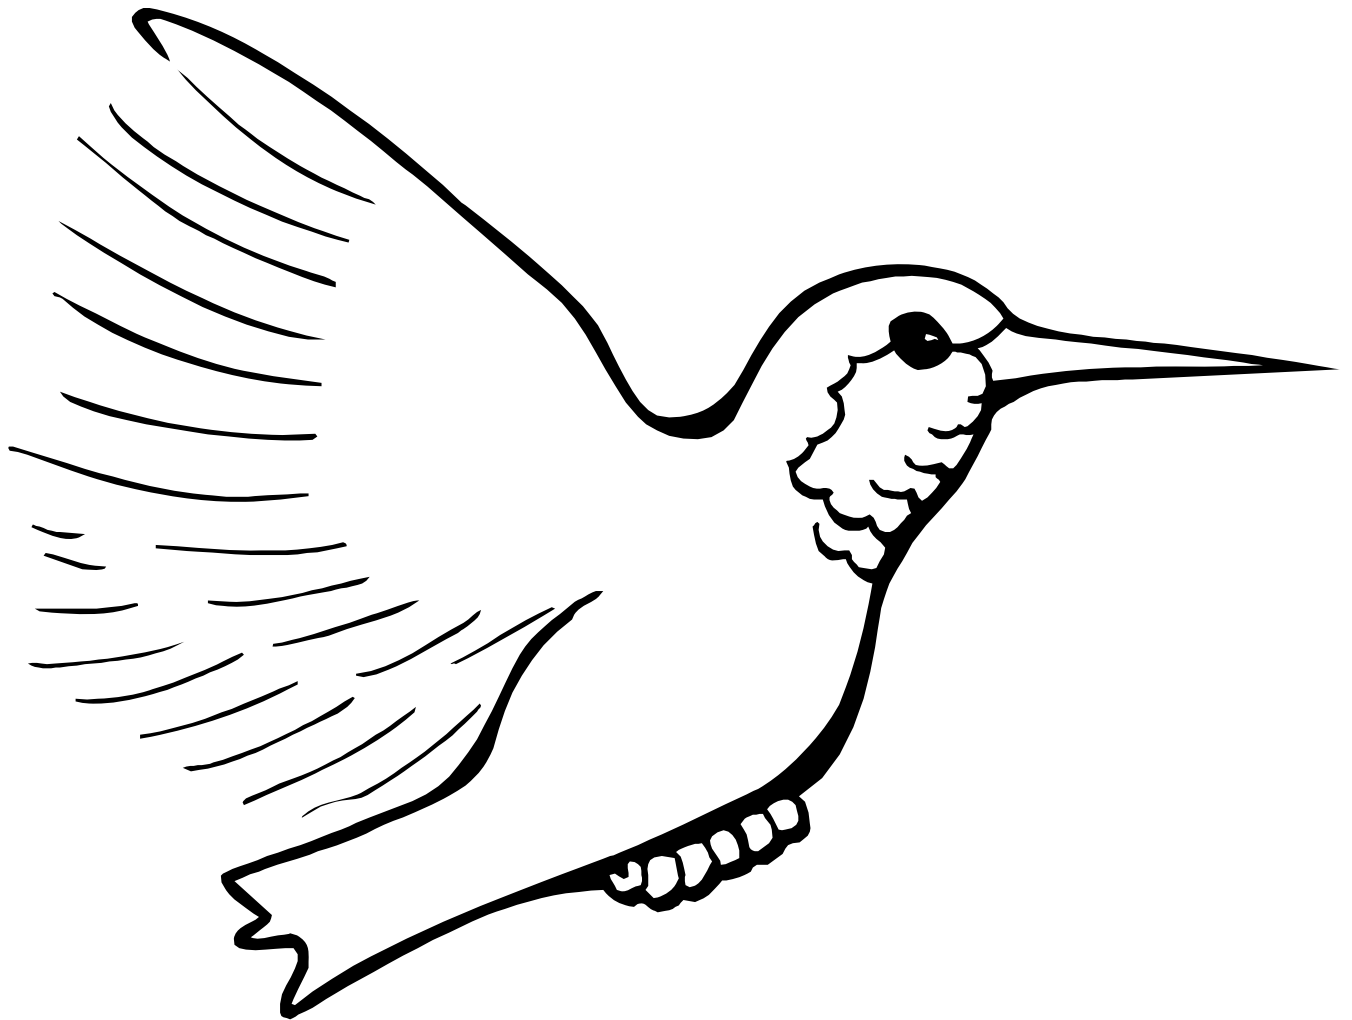

BLUE JAY	blue varied with white	12" long	Eats seeds, fruit, caterpillars, eggs and young of others	Has a loud, harsh voice mixing melodious with rasping shrieks sounding like "thief, thief."
----------	------------------------	----------	---	---

CARDINAL

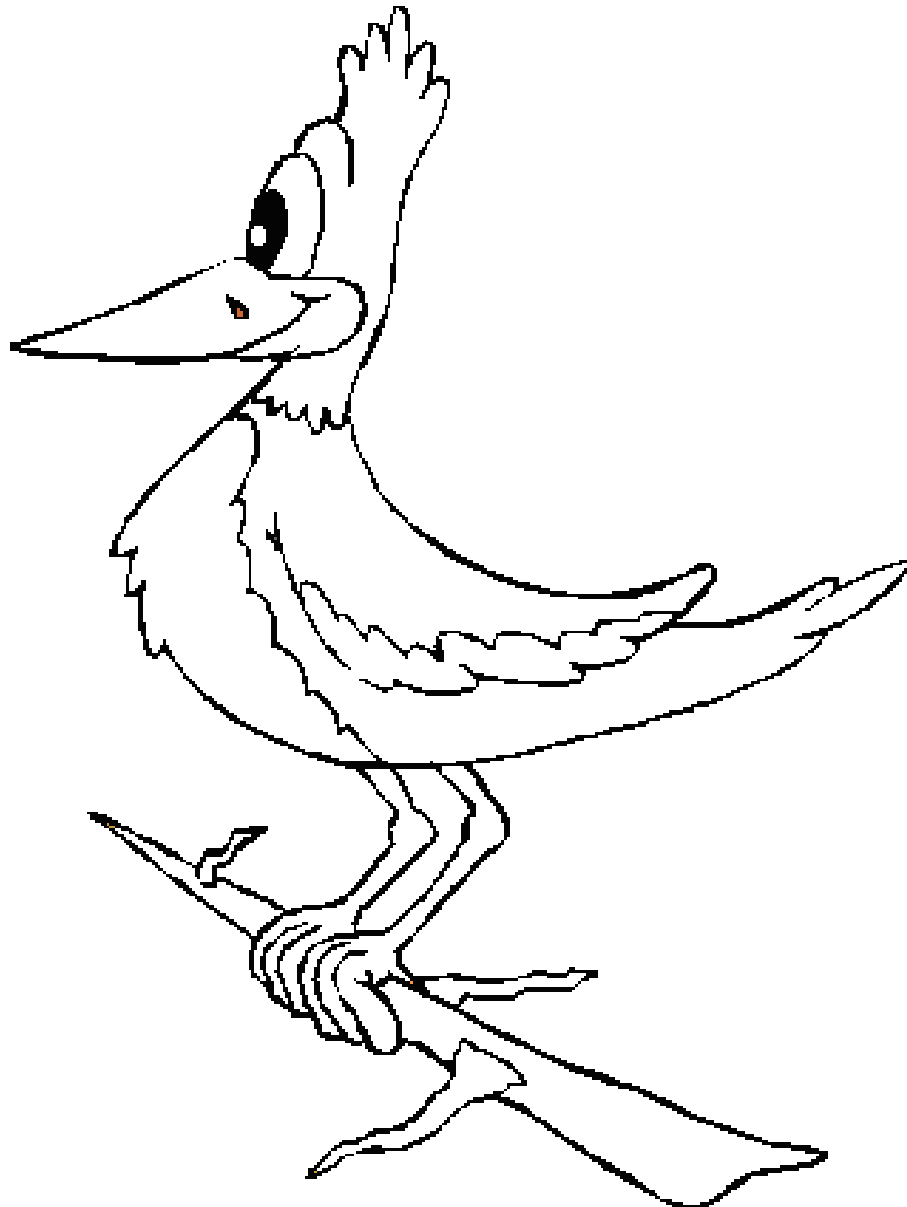

CARDINAL	Male: red with black throat	7" - 9" long	Eats seeds, fruit, insects, and worms	Is also called a "redbird," is a song bird with a clear ringing whistle and is the official bird of Illinois.
----------	-----------------------------	--------------	---------------------------------------	---

HUMMINGBIRD

HUMMINGBIRD	jeweled colored, metallic green	3" - 4" long	Eats nectar and small insects	Wings move 60 - 70 times per second making a whirring or humming sound from which it gets its name and is able to fly forward, backward, up and down like a helicopter.
-------------	---------------------------------	--------------	-------------------------------	---

WOODPECKER

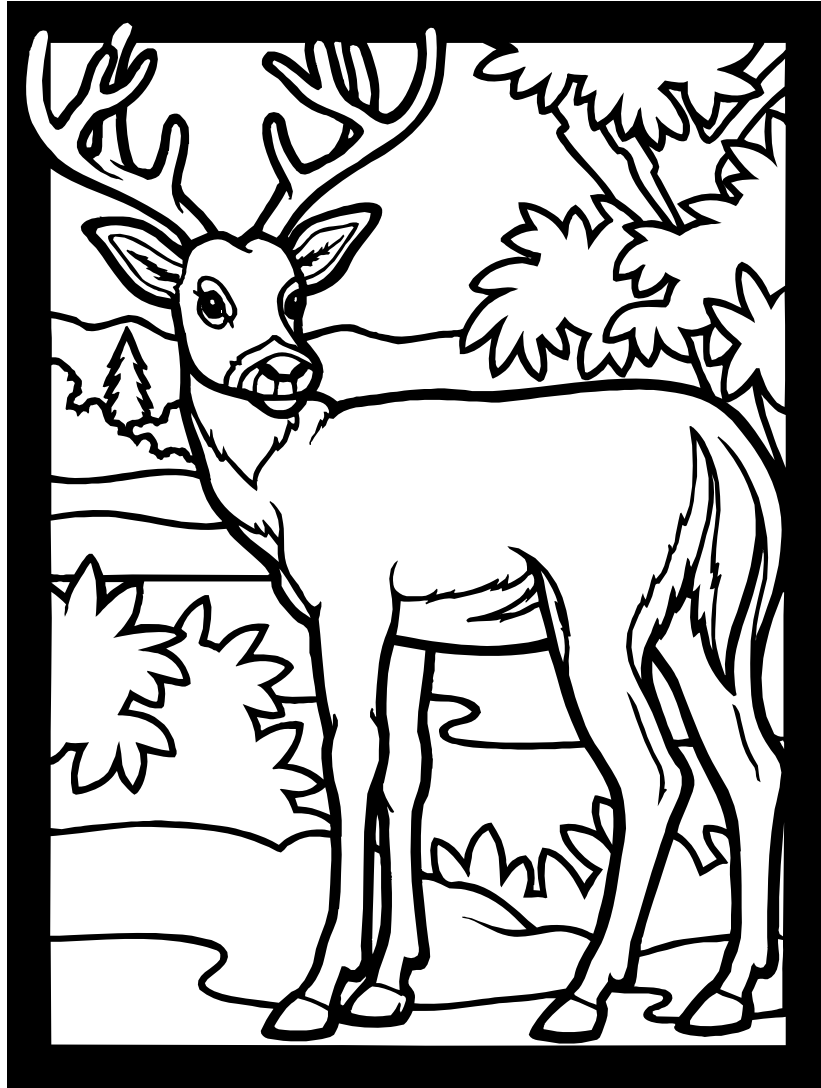

WOODPECKER	spotted black and white or brown and black	10" - 20" long	Eats insects and seeds	Bores holes in trees with its chisel-like beak and its long tongue reaches far into holes to eat insects.
------------	--	----------------	------------------------	---

FOX

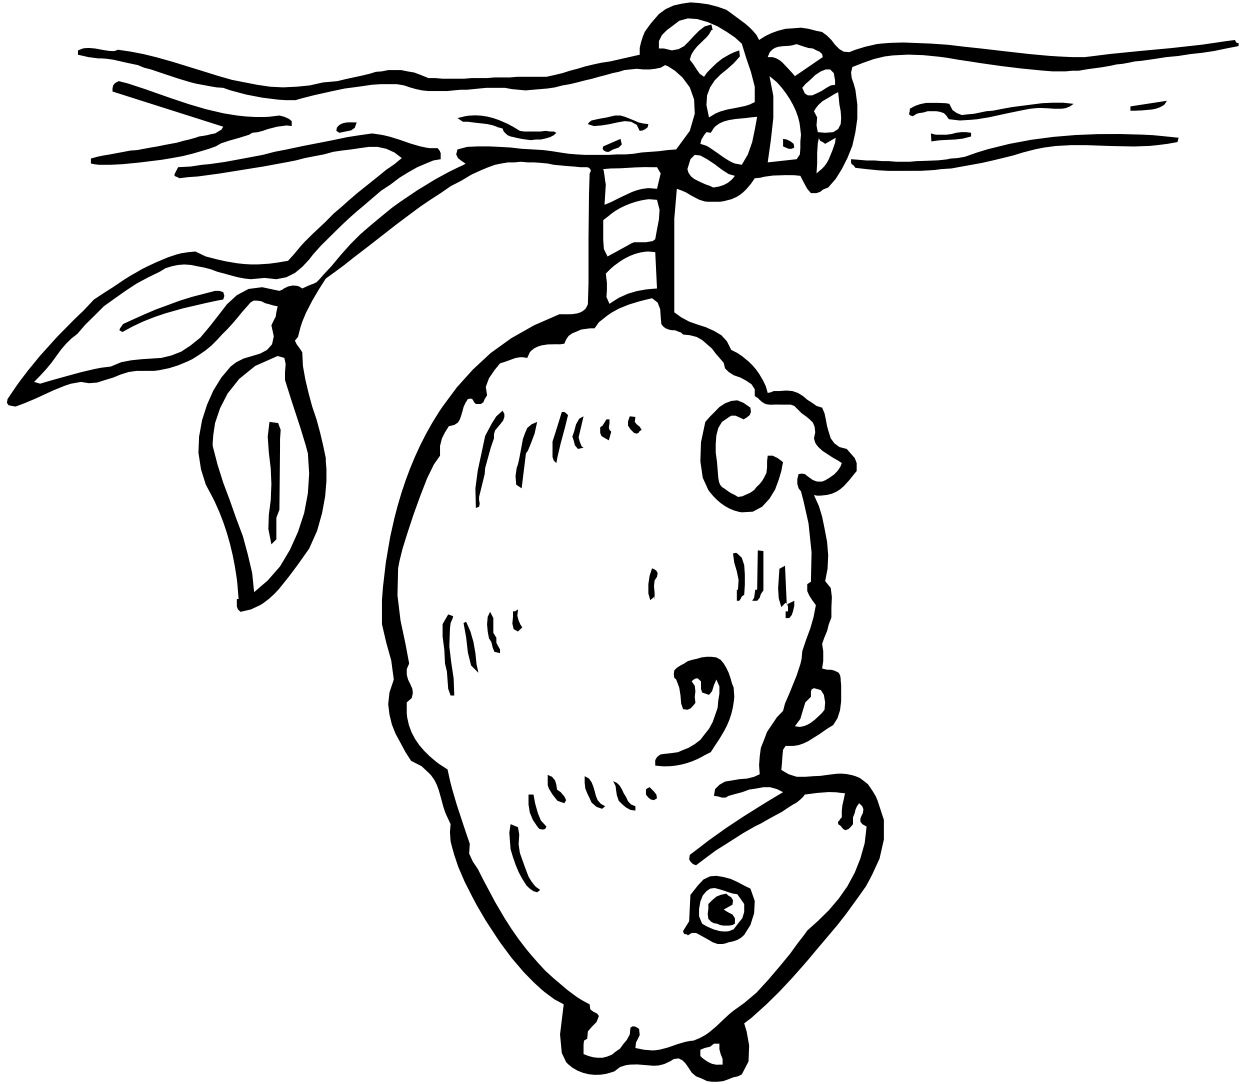

FOX	Gray or reddish brown	23" - 27" long with a 14" - 16" tail and 8 - 11 pounds	Eats small animals	Has 3 – 7 babies	Has keen hearing and excellent sense of smell and is considered cunning.
-----	-----------------------	--	--------------------	------------------	--

DEER

DEER (WHITE TAIL)	red-brown in summer; blue gray in winter	3 1/2' high and 200 pounds	Eats berries, twigs, & vegetables	Has 5 – 20 babies	Can leap 15-20 feet, can run 40 miles per hour, is a member of the only animal family with "antlers."
-------------------------	--	----------------------------------	--	----------------------	---

OPOSSUM

OPOSSUM	rough grayish white hair	12" - 20" long with a 10" - 21" tail	Eats small animals & vegetables	Has 5 – 20 babies	Female has pouch in which young are carried, pretends to be dead when trapped, and hangs upside down from tree.
---------	--------------------------	--------------------------------------	---------------------------------	-------------------	---

SQUIRREL

SQUIRREL	gray, brown, reddish or black	16" - 24" long and 3/4 - 1 1/2 pounds	Eats nuts, seeds, berries, & birds' eggs	Has 2 – 5 babies	Lives in trees or on the ground, stores nuts and seeds for winter.
----------	-------------------------------	---------------------------------------	--	------------------	--