CHICAGO, IL, January 28, 2010 - The Illinois State Board of Elections has set up a special Election Day "hotline" telephone number to assist voters at Tuesday's Primary Election, board officials said today.

The Chicago area "hotline" telephone number is (312)263-7367. For downstate voters, calls will be taken at the Board's Springfield office at (217)782-4141. Telephone number for the hearing impaired is (217)782-1518.

Election specialists will be available Election Day from 6 a.m. until 11 p.m. in Chicago and from 5:00 a.m. until 1 a.m. in Springfield to answer voter questions and respond to complaints.

Voters at the February 2nd General Primary Election will nominate candidates for U.S. Senate, Representative in Congress, Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer, the state legislature, judicial and county offices.

Board officials noted that in addition to candidates, there are local questions to be decided by voters across the state.

The polls are open from 6 a.m. until 7 p.m.

For more election information visit the Board's website at www.elections.il.gov.

Questions regarding voter registration information or polling place locations should be referred to the office of the county clerk or board of election commissioners.

The following telephone "hotline" numbers are provided for Election Day complaints and questions.

The State Board of Elections is an independent state agency charged with the responsibility of having general supervision over the administration of election laws of the State. Elections are administered locally by the State's 110 election authorities.
