SPRINGFIELD, IL, March 28, 2001 - The State Board of Elections today announced it has added a new feature to its award winning website that allows visitors to immediately access the state's election authorities.

Visitors to the Board's home page will now be able to click on a "quick link" and go directly to the new page which lists all one hundred ten counties and boards of elections. Also included is the name of the county clerk or executive director of the board, their telephone numbers and e-mail addresses.

Board director Ron Michaelson said that the new feature is part of the Board's ongoing program utilizing today's technology to provide the best election website possible.

"Our technical staff is continually reviewing and updating our website in response to staff suggestions and visitor inquiries," Michaelson said.

"We hope this new feature helps those searching for election officials by quickly directing them to the proper jurisdiction".

The board's web site can be found at www.elections.state.il.us.
