SPRINGFIELD, IL, April 23, 2003 - The State Board of Elections today announced that a little over half the public issues on the April 1st Consolidated Election ballot garnered enough votes for passage.

Of 342 questions, 177 passed and 165 failed.

Tax issues split dead even — 101 passed and 101 failed.

Bonding referenda did not fare as well with 24 of 40 issues failing and school related issues were also evenly split — 68 passed and 69 failed.

A summary of the results is attached.
