VERIFIED OBJECTOR'S PETITION

NOW COMES JEFFREY S. DENZLER, hereinafter referred to as "Objector", and respectfully represents that Objector resides in the 18th Congressional District of the State of Illinois, at 143 E. East Street, Argenta, Illinois, Zip Code 62501, and that your Objector is a registered, qualified legal voter at the Objector's residence address and that your Objector's interest in filing this objection is that of a citizen desirous of seeing that the election laws of the State of Illinois governing the filing of petitions to form new political parties in the 18th Congressional District and for the office of Representative in Congress for the 18th Congressional District of Illinois are fully and properly complied with and that only those candidates who properly comply therewith have their names printed upon the ballot as candidates for the said office and therefore your Objector makes the following objections to the to the petition to form the CONSTITUTION PARTY OF ILLINOIS as a new political party in the 18th Congressional District of Illinois and to BRADLEY K. CARTER as its candidate for election to the office of Representative in Congress for the 18th Congressional District of the State of Illinois, and files the same herewith and states the petition is insufficient in law and in fact for the following reasons:

1. Your Objector states that petitions for independent candidates for the office of Representative in Congress for the 18th Congressional District of Illinois to be voted upon at the General Election to be held on November 4, 2008 require the signatures of qualified voters equaling at least 5% of the number of persons who voted at the 2006 General Election, or at least 11,422 signatures.

2. Your Objector states that on its face the petition purports to contain the signatures of no more than 118 qualified voters, or at least 11,304 below the statutory minimum.

3. Your Objector further states that the petition on its face fails to contain the statutory minimum, and therefore, is invalid and insufficient.

WHEREFORE, YOUR Objector prays that the nominating petition to form the CONSTITUTION PARTY OF ILLINOIS as a new political party in the 18th Congressional District of Illinois and to BRADLEY K. CARTER as its candidate for election to the office of Representative in Congress for the 18th Congressional District of the State of Illinois be declared by this Honorable Board to be insufficient and not in compliance with the laws of the State of Illinois and that the proposed new party's name and the Candidate's name be stricken and that this Honorable Board enter its decision declaring that the name of the CONSTITUTION PARTY OF ILLINOIS as a new political party in the 18th Congressional District of Illinois and the name of BRADLEY K. CARTER as its candidate for election to the office of Representative in Congress for the 18th Congressional District of the State of Illinois BE NOT PRINTED upon the OFFICIAL BALLOT for the General Election to be held on November 4, 2008.

VERIFIED OBJECTOR'S PETITION

INTRODUCTION

BRETT HAASE, hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Objector", states as follows:

1. The Objector resides at 2811 Providence Lane, Montgomery, IL in the 14th Congressional District in the County of Kendall, State of Illinois and is a duly qualified, legal and registered voter at that address.
2. The Objector's interest in filing this Petition is that of a voter within the 14th Congressional District desirous that the laws governing the filing of nomination papers for the office of Representative in Congress for the 14th Congressional District in the State of Illinois are properly complied with, and that only qualified candidates appear on the ballot for said office.

OBJECTIONS

3. The Objector makes the following objections to the purported petition for nomination and formation of new political party ("Nomination Papers") filed by DAN DRUCK as a candidate for the office of Representative in Congress for the 14th Congressional District in the State of Illinois ("office") to be voted at the General Election on November 4, 2008. The Objector states that the Nomination Papers are insufficient in fact and law for the following reasons:
 4. Pursuant to the Illinois Election Code, 10 ILCS 5/10-2, new party candidates must file signatures of not less than 5% of the total number of persons who voted at the last regular General Election within the congressional district.
 5. The minimum number of signatures necessary for new party candidates in the 14th Congressional District is calculated to be 9,995.

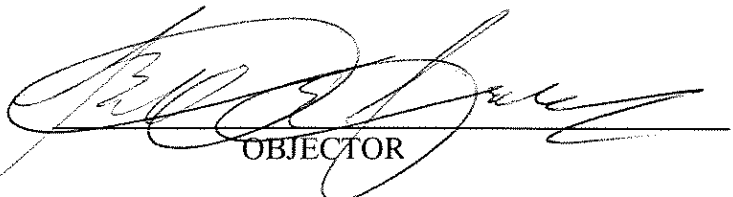

6. On or around June 23, 2008, DAN DRUCK filed Nominating Papers as a new political party candidate for the office of Representative in Congress for the 14th Congressional District in the State of Illinois.

7. DAN DRUCK filed only approximately 7,144 signatures as a new party candidate for the office of Representative in Congress for the 14th Congressional District in the State of Illinois.

8. DAN DRUCK did not file the minimum signature requirement of 5% of the total number of persons who voted at the last regular General Election within the 14th Congressional District in the State of Illinois.

9. DAN DRUCK did not file sufficient signatures to have his name placed on the ballot as a candidate for the office of Representative in Congress for the 14th Congressional District in the State of Illinois.

WHEREFORE, the Objector requests a hearing on the objections set forth herein, an examination of the Nominating Papers filed by DAN DRUCK, a ruling that the Nomination Papers are insufficient in law and fact, a ruling that the Nomination Papers do not contain the minimally required signatures for the office as a new party candidates, and a ruling that the name of DAN DRUCK shall not appear and not be printed on the ballot for election to the office of Representative in Congress for the 14th Congressional District in the State of Illinois, to be voted for at the General Election to be held November 4, 2008.
