RE: Additional Judgeships

The Administrative Office concurs in the recommendations of the State Board of Elections as to which additional judgeships shall be declared by the Board for purposes of the 2010 election, pursuant to Public Act 96-108.

With respect to the judgeships in the 12th Judicial Circuit, we construe the Act to create three (3) new resident circuit judgeships, to be allotted by the Supreme Court in the order as defined by the Act. The Court has entered the requisite orders allotting the seats. With the creation of the three (3) new resident judgeships, there are a total of sixteen (16) judgeships in the 12th Judicial Circuit.

In regard to the judgeships in the 19th Judicial Circuit, we construe the Act as having created six (6) resident subcircuit judgeships. Consistent with the Act, the two at-large vacancies, previously certified by the Supreme Court to the Board, as well as the newly created resident judgeship to be filled at the 2010 election, have been allotted by the Court in the order as defined by the Act as in the ordinary course.

Certification of the seats, along with the corresponding allotment orders will follow on Monday, August 31, 2009.
