Springfield, Illinois, October 29, 2004 - A record number of Illinoisans are registered to vote in the November 2, 2004 General Election, officials of the State Board of Elections announced today.

A total of 7,540,822 Illinois voters are eligible to cast ballots at next Tuesday's election. The statewide total is up 411,796 voters from the 2000 Presidential election total of 7,129,026 and up 402,868 voters from the previous record total of 7,137,954 at the 2004 primary election.

Board officials estimate that approximately 1.6 million of the state's 9.1 million voting age population remain unregistered.

A listing of registrations and precincts by election jurisdictions is attached, as well as a comparison of prior registration and turnout figures.
