SPRINGFIELD, IL, Feb. 5, 2001 - The State Board of Elections today announced that nine local questions of public policy will be on the February 27, 2001 Consolidated Primary Election Ballot.

Of the nine, seven are school related – six tax issues and one bond question. The school questions appear in selected jurisdictions in DuPage, Lake, Macon and Winnebago Counties.

The remaining two questions are city related, one to reduce the term of elective officers in Du Quoin, Perry County and an advisory question in Carlinville, Macoupin County regarding a hog processing plant.

Please contact your local election authority for more information.
