Chicago, Illinois, February 8, 2012 - The State Board of Elections is in the process of relocating its Springfield office to 2329 S. MacArthur Blvd., Springfield, IL 62704-4503. As part of the relocation process, all Springfield office telephone systems will be inactive as of 1:00 p.m. on Friday February 10, 2012.

The Springfield office telephone systems will remain inoperative from 1:00 p.m. on Friday February 10, 2012 through 8:00 a.m. on Tuesday, February 14, 2012. The Springfield office will be open at 2329 S. MacArthur Blvd., Springfield, IL 62704-4503 as of 8:00 a.m. on Tuesday, February 14, 2012.

Note: A limited number of the Board's Chicago office telephone numbers, including the main switchboard number (312-814-6440), will remain active to handle incoming telephone calls.

Additionally, the Agency's website (including the electronic filing of Campaign Disclosure reports) will remain functional during the transition.

The Springfield office will be fully operational at its new location as of 8:00 a.m. on Tuesday February 14, 2012. Telephone and Fax numbers will not be changed as a result of the relocation.

The State Board of Elections is an independent state agency charged with the responsibility of having general supervision over the administration of election laws of the State. Elections are administered locally by the State's 110 election authorities.
