This Federal and State Officers book for the year 2009 includes the names and addresses of all Illinois federal, state, and judicial officers.

The book is divided into six sections: (1) U.S. President and Vice President, (2) U.S. Senators from Illinois, (3) Representatives in Congress (with both Washington and district office addresses and telephone numbers), (4) Illinois Constitutional Officers, and (5) the General Assembly (including Springfield and district office addresses and telephone numbers), (6) Judicial Officers. When applicable, party affiliation is indicated by either an R (Republican) or a D (Democrat) following each name. ## COURTS IN ILLINOIS

The Supreme Court has seven justices elected from judicial districts for a term of ten years. Three justices are elected from the First District (Cook County), and one justice is elected from each of the other four districts. A Chief Justice (selected from their number) serves for a term of three years.

The Appellate Court has five districts and judges are elected for a term of ten years. The First District (Cook County) has 18 elected judges. The remaining 101 downstate counties are divided into four districts; each downstate district elects six judges.

The Circuit Court is comprised of Circuit Judges and Associate Judges. Circuit Judges are elected for a term of six years; Associate Judges are appointed by the Circuit Judges for four year terms. There are 23 judicial circuits in Illinois. The Cook County Judicial Circuit is an unnumbered circuit. In addition to the circuit judges that are elected at large they have 15 subcircuits.

Candidates for elective judgeships are nominated at the Primary Election and elected at the General Election. At the expiration of a term, a previously elected judge may seek to be retained in office for another term. The judge's name is placed on a special judicial ballot and submitted to the voters. Votes are cast based solely on the question of whether the judge shall be retained and without party designation or an opposing candidate.
