PROVISIONAL VOTING

[10 ILCS 5/18A-5(a)(1-7)]

Any person who claims to be a registered voter is entitled to cast a provisional ballot under the seven following circumstances:

1. The person's name does not appear on the official list of eligible voters for the precinct in which the person seeks to vote and the person has refused an opportunity to register at the polling location or another grace period registration site;
2. The person's voting status has been challenged by an election judge, a poll watcher, or any legal voter and that challenge has been sustained by a majority of the election judges;
3. A federal or state court order extends the time for closing the polls beyond the time period established by State law and the person votes during the extended time period;
4. The voter registered to vote by mail and is required by law to present identification when voting either in person or by early voting ballot, but fails to do so;
5. The voter's name appears on the list of voters who voted during the early voting period, but the voter claims not to have voted during the early voting period; or
6. The voter received a vote by mail ballot but did not return the vote by mail ballot to the election authority; or
7. The voter attempted to register to vote on Election Day, but failed to provide the necessary documentation

Remember: Offer Grace Period Registration and Voting to a voter PRIOR to issuing a provisional ballot. Contact your Election Authority's Office with questions regarding Provisional Voting.

Note: If a provisional ballot is cast in an incorrect precinct due to judge error, a portion of the ballot may be counted. [10 ILCS 5/18A-218.20]
