TOWNSHIP CAUCUS GUIDE

2009

Issued by the State Board of Elections

INTRODUCTION

The caucus method for nominating candidates for township office is used by most townships in Illinois. However, a primary election is required in those townships of over 5,000 population whose boundaries are co-extensive with or lie wholly within incorporated towns, villages or cities not under the commission form of government.

(60 ILCS 1/45-5)

In Cook County, and in townships with a population of more than 15,000 in counties other than Cook, the township central committee may decide to nominate its candidates by primary election. If the township central committee decides to hold a primary, it must file a statement of such determination with the county clerk no later than November 15 preceding the township election.

(60 ILCS 1/45-55)

For the year 2009, the township caucuses will be held on January 13th. The multi-township caucuses will be held on January 14th. The costs of the caucus are borne by the township or multi-township.

Also, it is advisable for the township/multi-township central committee to select a chairman prior to the caucus who would be chairman of the caucus proceedings.

TOWNSHIP BOARD OF TRUSTEES and MULTI-TOWNSHIP CENTRAL COMMITTEE

At least 10 days before the caucus, the township board must publish notice of the time and location for each party caucus. The deadline is January 3, 2009 [60 ILCS 1/45-10(b)].

ESTABLISHING RULES OF PROCEDURE (60 ILCS 1/45-50)

The township/multi-township central committee shall promulgate caucus Rules of Procedure prior to the holding of their respective established political party's caucus. The Rules of Procedure shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, the following:

1. No caucus shall commence earlier than 6:00p.m.
2. The caucus shall commence at the place specified in the notice of caucus.
3. Procedures by which qualified caucus participants shall determine by majority vote the duties of caucus judges of election. Caucus judges of election shall be appointed by a majority vote of the township or multi-township central committee. No judge of the Supreme Court, Appellate Court, Circuit Court or Associate Judge shall serve as a caucus judge of election.
4. Nominations for selection as a candidate shall be accepted from any qualified participant of the caucus.
5. Method of voting (i.e., written ballot, voice vote, show of hands, standing vote) for determining the candidate or candidates selected for nomination.
6. Whether candidates will be selected as a slate or as individual nominees for each office.
7. Whether written notice of intent to be a caucus nominee shall be required.
8. Other rules deemed necessary by the central committee at the time the rules are promulgated or by the majority of the qualified caucus participants when the rules are being considered at their meeting.

The Rules of Procedure shall be approved and may be added to or amended by a majority vote of the qualified participants at the caucus.

CAUCUS PARTICIPATION
(60 ILCS 1/45-50)

Qualified individuals participating at a political party's caucus shall:

1. be registered voters within the township/multi-township district (see sample form H-1);
2. sign an affidavit that he or she is a registered voter and affiliated with the established political party holding the caucus;
3. not take part in the proceedings of more than one established political party township/multi-township caucus for the same election (the requirement also applies to township and multi-township clerks);
4. be precluded from becoming an independent candidate or candidates for a new political party for the same election, or signing petitions for an independent or new political party candidate for the same election.

No person may participate at a township/multi-township caucus of an established political party if such person is or was at any time during the twelve months prior to the caucus:

1. an elected or appointed public official of another established political party;
2. an elected or appointed officer, director, precinct committeeman or representative of the township/multi-township committeeman of another established political party;
3. a judge of election appointed for another established political party pursuant to Articles 13 or 14 of the Election Code;
4. a voter who voted in the primary election of another statewide established political party different from the party holding the caucus (e.g., a voter who cast a Republican ballot at the February 2008 primary cannot participate in a Democratic caucus in 2009).

A voter participating at an established political party township or multi-township caucus shall not select for nomination more candidates than there are to be elected for each office.

CAUCUS DAY PROCEDURES

1. Upon entering the room where the caucus is held, caucus judges have each participant sign an affidavit stating that he or she is a registered voter in the township/multi-township and is affiliated with the established political party conducting the caucus (see sample form H-1).

[60 ILCS 1/45-50, c(3)]

2. At the appointed time, the chairman of the township/multi-township central committee shall call the meeting to order. The first order of business shall be to elect a secretary from the assembly. The secretary-elect should take his place next to the chairman and proceed to record the caucus business. The Rules of Procedure which has been adopted by the township/multi-township central committee should be reviewed at this time. Any amendments to the Rules of Procedure should be approved by a majority vote of the qualified participants attending the caucus.
3. The chairman, or presiding officer, shall then announce the method of voting selected by the township/multi-township central committee, introduce the caucus judges of election and announce the offices for which nominees are to be chosen.
4. The chairman shall call for opening nominations for each office according to the order in which the offices will appear on the township election ballot. Nominations from the floor may be made and no second is required; however, one or more members of the caucus may wish to offer a second as a form of endorsement. The chairman should repeat each nomination as is illustrated in the following:

Chairman: Nominations are now in order for candidates for the office of township supervisor.

Member: I nominate Mr. Smith.

Chairman: Mr. Smith is nominated. Are there any further nominations?

5. When it appears that no one else wishes to make any further nomination for an office, the chairman should again ask the assembly if anyone has a further nomination to offer and, if not, he shall declare the nominations closed and proceed to either vote on the nomination(s) or proceed to open nomination(s) for the next office, depending on the procedure which the township/multi-township central committee has selected.
6. The caucus judges of election are responsible for tallying the vote, with the township/multi-township central committee acting as the canvassing board. Obviously if any method other than a written ballot is employed, the canvass will be concurrent with the tallying. For instance, if a voice vote is issued, the caucus judges of election will make their report with the concurrence of the township/multi-township central committee; such concurrence shall take the place of the canvass. The chairman would then declare the candidate(s) nominated.
7. If written ballots are used, it would be advisable to have a centrally located ballot box over which the caucus judges of election can maintain control. A reasonable time should be allowed for voting. When it appears that those wishing to vote have done so, the Chairman shall inquire as to whether there is anyone who has not completed his or her vote. If there is no reply from the floor, the chairman shall declare the balloting closed. The caucus judges of election shall immediately begin tallying the votes. As soon as tallying has been completed, the township/multi-township central committee shall proceed to canvass the caucus judges' of election report. Upon completion of the canvass the chairman shall announce the results and declare the nominee(s)*. The voters participating at an established political party township or multi-township caucus shall not select for nomination more candidates than there are to be elected for each office.
8. When the selection of all nominees has been completed, the chairman shall call for a motion from the floor to adjourn. After the motion is seconded, a voice vote on adjournment shall be taken. The Chairman, upon an affirmative vote, adjourns the meeting.

* No candidate for nomination at a caucus shall be required to circulate and file nomination petitions to become a candidate at the caucus or file a fee to become a candidate at the caucus.
